Winn Cutler joined Nix Patterson in 2012 and is a member of the firm's commercial litigation and intellectual property litigation teams. Winn represents corporate, governmental, and individual clients in a wide variety of civil litigation matters, including patent litigation, class action litigation, and personal injury litigation.

Winn has experience representing clients in federal and state courts throughout the country and was a member of the trial team that obtained a $115 million jury verdict for Syntrix Biosystems against Illumina, Inc. in a federal court in Tacoma, Washington.

Prior to joining Nix Patterson, Winn attended Baylor Law School where he was an editor for the Baylor Law Review and competed on the Lone Star Mock Trial Team.
